

Employee Appreciation Concert

Symphonie Fantastique

Thursday | February 1 | 8pm

Ingram Hall - Blair School of Music

7pm - Pre-concert reception

- Light refreshments
- VU employees only and their guests

The orchestra takes on Hector Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique, a masterwork of the Romantic Era. The five-movement epic relates the tale of an artist driven to an opium-induced mania through his unrequited obsession with a beautiful woman.

Reception attendees can enter a drawing for free tickets to a Nashville Symphony Classic Series Concert but must be present to win. Employees must register in advance to attend the reception. Information is available at vu.edu/hr-concert. Registration closes Jan. 29.

Complimentary parking is available at West Garage 2500 Children's Way, through the Children's Way entrance.
