Creating Requisitions

1. From the Home Page, locate the Requisitions Channel.

Click the Create a Requisition link. Create a Requisition

2. For requisition type, choose between the default of Regular/Term/PRN or Temporary (VTS).

Click the Next button. Next

3. The Create Requisition window appears.

When selecting a Template or Hiring Manager, you may choose to use the Auto Suggest feature where the system will use the text that you type to suggest valid entries; or use the selector button to open the quick filter menu.

4. Locate the Requisition Template field.

5.Use the Auto Suggest feature by typing in the job code number or job title to populate the Requisition Template field.

Note: The system will use the text that you type to suggest valid entries. Choose the correct job code and title from the list.
6. Next, you will use the Auto Suggest feature to populate the Hiring Manager name field.

7. In the Hiring Manager field enter the Hiring Managers first or last name.

Note: The system will use the text that you type to suggest valid entries. Choose the correct name from the list.

Example of the 1st name drew:

8. Click the Next button.

9. Use the same methodology of selecting a Requisition Template and Hiring Manager to update the Organization (Department Name and Number) and Primary Location (Physical location of the position).

10. You are ready to create the requisition and make final edits.

Click the Create button.

Result: The requisition file is displayed in Edit mode.

Fields marked with a red asterisk are required.

11. Next, you will complete the Identification Section. Some fields may have been populated from the template, however, update as necessary for the position.

Note some of the required fields:
1. Justification
2. Posted Title (Title viewable by candidates)
3. Title by Job Code (Title that corresponds to the job code selected)

12. If appropriate you can add a Hiring Manager Assistant, this person will be able to view the requisition and screened candidates. Use the same methodology of selecting a Job Template and Hiring Manager to select a Hiring Manager Assistant.

Always use the following recruiters for each type of requisition:

University and School of Medicine: BARB MAIER
VTS: STACY HATTEN

IMPORTANT NOTE: Requisitions are either for the Medical Center, University or School of Medicine.

Use the same methodology of selecting a Job Template and Hiring Manager to update the Recruiter field.

Your name will be populated in the Recruiter field, replace it with the recruiter name listed above.

13. Next, you will complete the Administration and Description sections of the requisition. Some fields may have been populated from the template, however, update as necessary for the position.

NOTE: Enter all 10 digits of the cost centers associated with this position.

14. The External Job Description will pre-populate from the job description database based upon the Job Code that you chose earlier. The field may be edited or can be replaced with a department specific description by using the copy/paste feature from a Word document.

15. Next, you will launch the Diagnostic Tool and review fields that are required to save the requisition.
Click the Show fields required to: list item.

16. Click the Launch Diagnostic... list item.
Result: The Diagnostic Tool will display fields that are required before the requisition can either be saved or posted.

NOTE: Since Hiring Managers do not add Prescreening Questions or Competencies to the requisition (this is done by the recruiter), you can ignore the fact that the file still shows one missing field in order to Post, but make sure that all other fields required to post are complete before saving your requisition.

▾ Post
You must add at least one question or competency.
17. Close the Diagnostic tool by collapsing the right pane.

Click the Show/Hide button.

18. When all fields have been completed, it is time to save the requisition.

Click the Save and Close button.

Result: The Requisition file is now saved and displays in View mode with status of Draft.

Fields that were left empty in Edit mode do not display in View mode.

Click the Up to the Requisition List button.

19. Return to the Home Page. Click the Recruiting menu.

20. Your position will now be routed to:

University and SOM: BARB MAIER
VTS: Stacy Hatten
